

Orizzontali

- 1. Canoes, bows, and spears are examples of _____ resources used by American Indians.
- 5. These indians lived in the rainy, mild climate of the Pacific Northwest Coast.
- 8. Fish, wild animals, and crops are examples of _____ resources eaten by American Indians.
- 9. The _____ River was considered the "gateway to the west" because it was one of the few rivers flowing east to west

- 11. The _____ River forms the border between the U.S. and Mexico.
- 12. These indians lived in present-day Alaska and northern Canada, where the temperature is below freezing much of the year.
- 13. These indians lived in the heavily forested Eastern Woodland region of the northeast.

Verticali

- 1. It is believed that humans lived at _____ on the Nottoway River as early as 18,000 years ago.
- 2. These Indians lived on

- the dry grasslands of the Great Plains, where they hunted buffalo.
- 3. The _____ River, flowing from the Rockies to the Pacific, was explored by Lewis and Clark.
- 4. These indians lived in the Southwest (present-day New Mexico and Arizona) in desert areas bordering cliffs and mountains.
- 6. The _____ and Missouri Rivers were important transportation routes for farm and industrial products traded

- between the North and the South.
- 7. American Indians who fished, made clothing and hunted are examples of _____ resources.
- 10. The Inuit lived in _____ areas where the temperature was below freezing most of the year.