Dissatisfaction with Great Britain

The student will demonstrate knowledge of the causes and results of the American Revolution by a) the issues of dissatisfaction that led to the American Revolution.

As Great Britain expanded control over the American colonies, many colonists became dissatisfied and rebellious.

Great Britain’s reasons for controlling the colonies
- Great Britain desired to remain a world power.
- In the American colonies, Great Britain’s desire to remain a world power resulted in a conflict with the French known as the French and Indian War.
- Great Britain imposed taxes, such as the Stamp Act, to raise necessary revenue to pay the cost of the French and Indian War.

Great Britain’s reasons for taxation
- To help finance the French and Indian War
- To help finance the maintenance of British troops in the colonies

Sources of colonial dissatisfaction
- The colonies had no representation in Parliament.
- Some colonists resented the power of the colonial governors.
- Great Britain wanted strict control over colonial legislatures.
- The colonies opposed the British taxes.
- The Proclamation of 1763, which followed the French and Indian War, restricted the western movement of settlers.

Revolution - Political Ideas

b) identify how political ideas shaped the revolutionary movement in America and led to the Declaration of Independence.

New political ideas led to a desire for independence and a democratic government in the American colonies.

The Declaration of Independence proclaimed independence from Great Britain. It stated that people have natural (inherent) rights to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness.

Key philosophies in the Declaration of Independence were based upon ideas first expressed by European philosophers (e.g., John Locke).

Key philosophies in the Declaration of Independence
- People have “certain unalienable rights” (rights that cannot be taken away)—to life, liberty, the pursuit of happiness.
- People establish government to protect those rights.
- Government derives power from the people.
- People have a right and a duty to change a government that violates their rights.
