

Across

- 3 In recent decades, Northern Virginia and the Tidewater region have grown due to jobs in _____ technology. (8)
- 5 After World War II, African Americans began demanding ___ treatment. (5)
- 6 The U.S. Constitution was amended in 1920 to give _____ the right to vote. (5)
- 9 The case, Davis v. Prince Edward, became one of the five cases reviewed by the U.S. _____ when it declared segregation unconstitutional. (7,5)
- 12 Full equality of all races in the use of public facilities like bathrooms and buses. (11)
- 14 The U.S. Supreme Court ruled in 1954 (Brown v. Board of Education) that “separate but equal” public schools were _____. (16)
- 16 In the 1930s, the Great _____ caused much economic hardship and suffering around the world. (10)

- 17 To fight the hardships of the Great Depression, the federal government established the _____ to provide jobs. (3,4)
- 18 In keeping with the policy of Massive Resistance, some Virginia schools _____ to avoid desegregation. (6)
- 20 The Massive Resistance Movement against desegregation of schools was let by Senator Harry F. _____, Sr. (4)
- 21 As a result of the _____ Movement, laws were passed that made racial discrimination illegal. (5,6)
- 22 With many people moving to Virginia from other states and countries, Virginia has become more _____. (7)

Down

- 1 After the Supreme Court's ruling in "_____ v. Board of Education", all schools, including those in Virginia, were ordered to desegregate. (5)
- 2 Developments in _____, including railroads, streetcars, and roads helped cities grow. (14)
- 4 The legal end of racial segregation. (13)
- 6 Governor of Virginia, L. Douglas _____, was the first African American to be elected a state governor. (6)
- 7 Virginia's government decided to disobey the order to desegregate public schools with a policy called Massive _____. (10)
- 8 Virginia governor A. Linwood _____, Jr. promoted racial equality and appointed many African Americans and women to state government positions. (6)

- 10 During the early 20th century, people moved from rural to _____ areas (cities) for jobs. (5)
- 11 Mining for _____ was an important activity in southwestern Virginia. (4)
- 13 Northern Virginia has grown due to increases in the number of _____ jobs in nearby Washington, D.C. (7)
- 15 An African American leader from Virginia who ran a bank and supported equal rights for women was Maggie _____. (6)
- 19 Barbara Johns, a 16-year-old high school junior in Farmville, Virginia, led a student _____ against segregation in 1951. (6)