

Across

- 1 Samuel William _____ organized a "sit in" at a segregated library (6)
- 5 A student strike led by Barbara _____ became part of the Supreme Court Case Davis v. Prince Edward County (5)
- 6 After the Supreme Court's ruling in "_____ v. Board of Education", all schools, including those in Virginia, were ordered to desegregate. (5)
- 8 Virginia governor A. Linwood _____, Jr. promoted racial equality and appointed many African Americans and women to state government positions. (6)
- 9 Oliver W. _____ was a civil rights lawyer who helped argue the Supreme Court case Davis v. Prince Edward County (4)

- 10 After World War II, African Americans began demanding _____ treatment. (5)
- 11 Barbara Johns, a 16-year-old high school junior in Farmville, Virginia, led a student _____ against segregation in 1951. (6)
- 13 As a result of the _____ Movement, laws were passed that made racial discrimination illegal. (5,6)
- 17 The case, Davis v. Prince Edward, became one of the five cases reviewed by the U.S. _____ when it declared segregation unconstitutional. (7,5)
- 19 With many people moving to Virginia from other states and countries, Virginia has become more _____. (7)
- 20 The legal end of racial segregation. (13)

- 21 Poll taxes and _____ tests were used to keep Black citizens from voting (8)

Down

- 2 Virginia's government decided to disobey the order to desegregate public schools with a policy called Massive _____. (10)
- 3 Robert Russa _____ worked to improve Black schools and became principal of Tuskegee Institute (5)
- 4 The U.S. Supreme Court ruled in 1954 (Brown v. Board of Education) that "separate but equal" public schools were _____. (16)
- 7 Governor of Virginia, L. Douglas _____, was the first African American to be elected a state governor. (6)
- 12 Full equality of all

_____ races in the use of public facilities like bathrooms and buses. (11)

- 14 An African American leader from Virginia who ran a bank and supported equal rights for women was Maggie _____. (6)
- 15 In keeping with the policy of Massive Resistance, some Virginia schools _____ to avoid desegregation. (6)
- 16 The Massive Resistance Movement against desegregation of schools was let by Senator Harry F. _____, Sr. (4)
- 18 Irene _____, like Rosa Parks but a decade earlier, fought segregation by refusing to give up her seat in a bus. (6)